

CONTENTS OF VOLUME II.

ESSAYS RELATIVE TO THE PAST, PRESENT, AND PROSPECTIVE STATE OF MAN, AS A PROGRESSIVE CREATURE.

	PAGE
EARLY CIVILISATION OF IRELAND—Probability that Ireland has enjoyed two distinct stages or periods of civilisation, and is now entering on her third—the Round Towers—a visit to Clonmacnoise	9
METAPHORICAL PROSPECTS—exaggerations which precede and accompany great changes—a glance at some of the great changes which have recently taken place in the framework of British government	17
WOMAN'S MISSION IN REFERENCE TO NATIONAL EDUCATION—what might be effected in society by the influence of intelligent and cultivated females	58
THE DESTINY OF MAN—apprehensions respecting the "end of the world"—growth of the human race like the human individual—the past, the present, and the future—"Then cometh the end"	209
WHITE AND BLACK—is man a homogeneous creature, or are there different species in the genus?	241
Varieties of the Human Species	402
The Slave Trade	261
Aristocracy in America	273
SOCIALISM—origin of New Lanark Mills—David Dale—Robert Owen—Christian socialists—no "community of goods" in the early Christian church—the Catechists of Egypt	297
INFANCY OF NAVIGATION AND WAR	305
MUSINGS IN A POULTRY YARD—speculations on instinct and reason, and anecdotes of animals	337
LONDON FEMALE SERVANTS—condition, want of principle, and want of education	353
A CHAPTER ON BIGOTRY	376
TALK ABOUT HOMER—state of society and manners about the time when Homer is supposed to have lived	168
The same subject continued	264
Could Homer write?	282

A PANORAMIC VIEW OF THE JEWS.

I.—FROM ABRAHAM TO NEBUCHADNEZZAR—Similarity between the cases of the Jews and the Gipsies—influence of Judaism on Christianity—the Jews in the Desert—the office of Moses in moulding them into a national form—the Jewish Republic—the Monarchy in its magnificent days—downward progress of the nation	40—42
II.—FROM THE CAPTIVITY TO THE CHRISTIAN ERA—When did the dispersion of the Jews commence?—overthrow of the Mosaic polity by Nebu-

chadnezzar—blank between the Old Testament and the New—what the Jews acquired in their Babylonish dispersion—vain attempts to resuscitate the nation—the efforts of the Maccabees—Jewish sects and "schools"	81—83
III.—FROM THE FIRST TO THE SIXTH CENTURY OF THE CHRISTIAN ERA—Jerusalem not an essential of the Jewish system—but locality always uppermost in the Jewish mind—Jerusalem destroyed, first by Titus, second by Hadrian—Barchochebas the false Messiah—Julian's attempt to rebuild the Temple—Judaism revived in Christianity	120—122
IV.—CONCLUSION—recapitulation of leading points—Mohammed's compound of a spurious Judaism, and a spurious Christianity—the isolated condition of the Jews made them traffickers, slave-merchants, usurers, and overreachers—change in the treatment of the Jews—Palestine no longer the "land" of the Jews, and extreme improbability of their ever being restored to it as a nation—the Jews, as a religious body, will probably gradually melt into Christianity	153—156

SOCIAL AND POLITICAL ECONOMY.

I.—CASH—a magic lantern—coins, their historical value—cash, its supposed power and immutability—the real use of cash, and relative value—a golden enchanted island—comparison between cash and coal—money worship	328—330
II.—PAPER—quotation from the book of Job—early use of the precious metals—supposed connexion between heat and gold—"gold of Ophir"—influence upon European commerce of the precious metals from America—invention of bills of exchange—business of banking—use of paper—delusions arising from its use—origin of the National Debt—evils arising from the improvident issues of paper money	343—346
III.—PRODUCTION—produce and money—Nature a provident banker—probabilities of an increase in the quantity supplied of the precious metals—paper money not a universal medium of exchange—state of England during the war, when our currency was chiefly paper—errors of this country and of the United States, with reference to paper money—"too much money, too little produce"—suggestion of a government bank of issue for paper money	360—362
The Principles of National Exchange	238
Population and Subsistence	352

	PAGE
RAILROADS—their origin, and influence on Internal Communication, and the personal comfort and convenience of the people at large	257
Canals—Internal Communications	317
Prison Discipline in Britain and the United States	268

SCIENCE IN RELATION TO MORAL AND MENTAL PROGRESS.

POSSIBILITIES OF ÆROSTATION—great advantage possessed by modern philosophers over their predecessors—amount of misdirected labour wasted on the art of flying	6
THE LIMITS OF POWER—what man has been enabled to do by the aid of merely mechanical contrivances	65
The same subject continued—Steam and its coadjutors	89
THE PROGRESS OF KNOWLEDGE—"knowledge is power"—alternate ebb and flow of civilisation and learning—comparative safety of both now	141
THE LIMITS OF KNOWLEDGE—as arising from the imperfection of our senses	183
Knowledge of Steam by the Ancients	286
Pneumatic or Air Engines	301
ASSURANCE AND INSURANCE—rise of assurance societies—life governed by fixed laws—uses of and dangers of assurance societies	129
The Basis of Life Assurance—with a table, showing the value of an investment of one pound, increased at compound interest of three per cent., from one year to fifty	221

TRAVELLERS AND TRAVELLING.

TRAVELLERS' TALES	248
A MONTH'S HOLIDAY	321
RECOLLECTIONS OF A RAMBLE IN WALES—Preliminary hints to walking tourists—Chirk Castle—Vale of Llangollen	33
Ramble continued—Valle Crucis Abbey—Owen Glyndwr—Capel Curig—Mount Cnob	58
Departure from Capel Curig—Bangor—Conway—Beddgelert	75
Ascent of Snowdon	136
Professor Robinson's Travels in Palestine in 1838	109
Poeppig doubling Cape Horn	164
Stewart's Bogota, and the Republic of New Grenada	170
Fatal Excursion into the Battas Country	172
Visit to the Rapids of Trollhattan	207
Waterton and his Wanderings	332

CONSTANTINOPLE.		SURVEYING VOYAGES OF THE ADVENTURE AND THE BEAGLE.		BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES.
	PAGE		PAGE		PAGE
A general view of Constantinople . . .	212	1. Objects of the expedition—the Strait of Magelhaens, commonly called Magellan . . .	196	Valentia, Duchess of Orleans . . .	27
The Mad House of Constantinople . . .	260	2. Continued survey of the Straits of Magelhaens, and partial examination of the south-west coast of America . . .	235	Olympia Morata . . .	69
The Dancing Dervishes . . .	289	3. Cape Horn and the Tierra del Fuego . . .	270	John Pounds, of Portsmouth, shoemaker, and gratuitous teacher of poor children . . .	115
The Dogs of Constantinople . . .	311			Paul Jones . . .	202
The Turkish Sabbath and the late Sultan . . .	385			Alexander Volta, and the history of the voltaic pile . . .	307
				Margaret Beaufort . . .	363
				Sir Hugh Myddelton . . .	397
BOTANY AND BOTANICAL SKETCHES.		TALES, ESSAYS, AND SKETCHES OF LIFE AND MANNERS, &c.		COLONIES AND EMIGRATION.
Studies from Nature—Trees . . .	21	ORIGINAL AND SELECTED.		Our Australian Colonies . . .	254
Effects produced on Plants under improved or superior modes of management . . .	64	THE POLISH LANCER, a Prussian tale of Napoleon's wars . . .	4	A View of the Colony or Province of Western Australia . . .	356
The Coco de Mer, or Seychelles Palm . . .	125	THE RESPECTABLE ROGUE . . .	14	Van Diemen's Land and the Province of Port Philip . . .	379
Pöppig's Botanical Palace . . .	246	Italian Banditti—Antonio Gasperoni . . .	19	Domestic Difficulties in the Back Woods—trials of a Michigan Settler, as narrated by a Lady . . .	346
The Coco Chewers of Peru . . .	326	THE MARCH OF LUXURY—a Scottish sketch Reminiscences of a Witty Lady . . .	23
		Characteristics and Peculiarities of Trades—the Mason and the Bricklayer . . .	42
		A TALE OF THE FIRST FRENCH REVOLUTION . . .	43
		A SWEDEN "ROBIN" . . .	46
		The Gudeman of the Brow's Grumphy . . .	55
		A Young Convict's Story, as narrated by himself . . .	66	MISCELLANEOUS ARTICLES.
		THE KING AND THE LAIRD—a traditionary story of James the Fourth of Scotland . . .	72	The Epsom Salts Cave, Indiana, United States . . .	15
		The Confessions of a Printer's Reader . . .	78	Celebration of the anniversary of the battle of Leipzig at Hamburg . . .	ib.
		TERENCE O'ROURKE, the Rockite . . .	86	Cultivation of the clove at Zanzibar . . .	16
		THE LITERARY SCHEMER . . .	95	The Half-savages of Provence . . .	32
		An Evening with Coalheavers . . .	104	The Sperm-whale and South Sea Whale Fishery . . .	35
		The Economical American in England . . .	117	Notes on the Western States of the American Union . . .	38
		DELIVERANCE; or the Choice . . .	123	The same subject continued . . .	61
		THE WIDOW . . .	126	The Cocoa-nut Tree . . .	47
		PHILOPROGENITIVENESS . . .	140	Origin of Periodical Literature . . .	52
		Danger of mere Circumstantial Evidence . . .	142	The Pehuenche Indians . . .	71
		The Removal . . .	144	Biography of a Sparrowhawk . . .	75
		ROARERS . . .	149	The Condor of South America . . .	79
		THE OLD FIRM . . .	179	A Pawnee Dandy . . .	91
		THE ABSCENTEE, a tale of the Alhambra . . .	185	The Spider Family . . .	100
		THE FIRST PINE-APPLE GROWN IN ENGLAND—a tale of the time of Charles II. . .	185	Necessity of Steam Navigation on the South American Rivers . . .	102
		The Irish Schoolmaster taming young Republicans . . .	188	Fire-side Education . . .	107
		The Man of Leisure . . .	199	Contrast; or a couple of New England pictures . . .	108
		AMATEUR GIGGERS . . .	201	Frozen Wells . . .	111
		THE FIRST SHAVE . . .	214	A Prospective Wife in crystal . . .	115
		TRAVELS ROUND MY STUDY . . .	216	Tongueless Dog retaining the power of barking . . .	122
		The Struggle and the Triumph . . .	218	Funeral Mounds . . .	127
		Snook, the Highwayman . . .	222	The Vampire Bat . . .	139
		THE MILITARY ENBARCATION . . .	225	The Fox and Fox-hunting . . .	159
		THE POT-BY AND BOOTS . . .	227	History of the Penny Postage . . .	159
		A Sabbath Day-Dream . . .	234	Cooper's Plan of a Penny Postage . . .	292
		Smoking in the 18th and 19th centuries . . .	237	A Visit to some Prussian Schools . . .	174
		A Raw Recruit . . .	239	Monkeys, and their Imitative Powers . . .	187
		Ancient Times . . .	ib.	Land and Capital . . .	189
		Provision for the Ladies . . .	244	Catching Pigeons and Rabbits . . .	192
		BORROWERS . . .	245	The Sources of Civilisation . . .	206
		SOCIAL CONSPIRACIES . . .	266	Steam-vessel Accidents . . .	214
		AMAZONS . . .	277	Eel-fishing with a Sap . . .	223
		The King and the Thunder-storm . . .	282	New Lebanon Springs and the Shakers . . .	229
		THE ORDINARY . . .	285	Negative Artesian Wells . . .	243
		The Man who had nothing else to do . . .	303	Provision for the Ladies . . .	244
		Leckinski's Trials, a tale of the Peninsular War . . .	310	An American "Brute" Tamer . . .	247
		Justice and Charity . . .	317	Instinct of Insects . . .	253
		Mr. Niblo, the Bashful Lecturer . . .	324	Circumstantial Evidence . . .	255
		Lord Ferrars, the Murderer . . .	341	Persian Notions of English Affairs of Honour; incident at Navarino . . .	ib.
		A Mountain Pirate king . . .	358	Extraordinary Revenge . . .	278
		The Sister Therese . . .	366	The Autumn of 1839 . . .	279
		Painting a Sky . . .	367	Knitting and Netting . . .	278
		THE DESERTER . . .	369	The Daguerrotype . . .	283
		THE NEW CONCERN . . .	378	Birds versus Insects . . .	291
		CIVIC RULERS . . .	401	THE FUGIAN INDIANS . . .	293
		American Mess-Table Chat . . .	404
		THE CUTTER . . .	406

PAGE
27
69

115
202

307
363
397

254

356

379

346

15

ib.
16
32

35

38
61
47
52
71
75
79
91
100

102
107

108
111
115

122
127
139
158
159
292
174
187
189
192
206
214
223
229
243
244
247
253
255

ib.
256
278
279
283
291
293

CONTENTS.

vii

	PAGE
Göttingen	295
English Pirates a century ago	314
Natural History of Coal	335
Sporting in Tristan D'Acunha	350
The Highland Dress	351
Pesth	315
Account of a Tornado	375
The Burial-places of Damascus	387
A Scotchman's Debut in London	391
Fire by Night	398
Old Father Christmas	399

POETS AND POETRY.

HOURS WITH THE POETS.—Coleridge, his Life, Character, and Poetry	7
HOURS WITH THE POETS.—Herrick, Life, Character, and Poetry	53
Pizarro's Birth-place—Southey	16
The Visionary—original	32
Sonnet from Lorenzo de' Medici, translated by Roscoe	39
What is Love ?	48
Violets—another sonnet from Lorenzo de' Medici	63
A Brother's Love—Croly	64
The Leaf and the Stem—Ouseley	88
Homo Vernis	96
Poetic Claptraps	112
Pensive thoughts—Dr. Pise	144
The Holiday of the Chimneys—original	224
Woman's Love	240
Man intended for High Purposes—Wordsworth	256
Woman's Birth—original	ib.
Alliterative Poetry	302
A Mother's Lessons—Park Benjamin	368
The Quakeress Bride	384
The Old Familiar Faces	407

SCRAPIANA.

Singular Instance of the Preservation of Animal Life in compact Gravel	6
A Link between the Past and the Present	22
Connexion of Religion with rational Liberty	24
Uses of Metals	31
Politeness—seizing a Brown Loaf	37
Men versus Posts	42
Cultivation of the Fine Arts in Geneva	43
Trust not to Gold	45
Subordination; and Tenacity of Life in the Vulture	48
Anecdotes of Copernicus; and Electioneering in the Back Woods	64

	PAGE
Varieties in the Song of Birds	71
A modern Breakfast served up with ancient Magniloquence	74
Knocking into the middle of next Week	77
How to drown yourself. Wax made by Ants. Discretion. A Hint to the Tailors. John Barleycorn. What's in a Name? Miss Roupell's Repartee	80
The Sea, the Sea, the beautiful Sea!	93
Expansive Views. Are you ever tired of Yourself? Genuine Ice-creams	96
A Ram's-horn Teacher. Horse-hair Justice. Smart Retorts	107
Roman Prosperity	108
Infancy of James Watt. Curiosity a hopeful Symptom. The Doctor and the Pavior. Anecdote of Young. Friendship	112
How to settle the Attorneys	124
The Juden Stadt in Prague. Mohammed's Morality. The Feast of the Peacock. Jewish Expectation of a Millennium. Much Justice and little Law	128
A Discourse of Printing	139
Courageous Conduct of a Naval Surgeon	143
Successful Men. Persian Wit. A Draught Horse. The Pitcher Plant	144
Balaam and his Ass in the House of Lords. Youth and Age. The Oyster. A great Difference. Give us our Eleven Days	160
Time and Sir William Jones	167
Chinese Tract Society. Elves' Nice Corner. Tom Brewer's Nose. Archy Armstrong's Gratitude. Epitaph in Haddington Churchyard. Animal Sympathy. Difficulty of describing a Battle. Domestic Affections. First Love. Advice not Charity	176
Anecdote of Sir John Colborne	187
Ostriches. Recreation. No Poverty in America. The Cure of Folly. Courtship by a Sailor. A Yankee Horse. The Retort Profitable. Aim High	192
Anecdote from Gleig's "Chelsea Hospital"	198
A Scotch Drunkard reformed	200
The Blackbird's Song	202
Roasted Apples and Salads	205
Useful Suggestions to those who want them	207
The Ghost in Spectacles. Care of an American Mother. George the Second and Hogarth. Imagination. The First of June. Scott's Chapter Mottoes. National Characteristics. The Sponge Fishery	208
French Gallantry	217
Anecdote of the Duke of Portland	212
A Moral Tale for the Times	223
Process of Coinage	ib.
Beau Nash's Benevolence; Tea and Liberty	224
Catalani and Goethe	231

	PAGE
Immensity of Creation	233
To make Home Happy. The Freezing Mixture. The Education of the Heart. Good Feeling. Conscientious Accommodation. Antiquity of the Globe. A Theatrical Family	240
The Dodo	247
A Hint to the really Humane	253
Extraordinary Revenge	256
An Australian "Corrobory"	261
Reading at Book-stalls	263
Sir Walter Scott's Visit to Dublin	277
Trials of the early Methodist Ministers	283
A Pair of real Top-boots. William the Conqueror. Who rightly read History. Genealogy. Advocates and Clients. NEWSPAPER CUTTINGS:—A Receipt to stop Begging. The Ruling Passion strong in Death. Long Tails and short ones. A Grammatical Discovery. Noisy Figs. An ambiguous Condition	289
Punctuality. Conversation. A reasonable Request. Garrick and Dr. Stonehouse. Persian Account of England. The Aggori	304
Heroism	313
Radcliffe and Mead; and Albuquerque's Moustache in Pledge	320
The fortunate Legatees	327
Opium-Venders of Constantinople. Opium the Cause of Chinese Dislike to Foreigners. Found out. Unsteady Reasoning. Beauty in a Wife. Tender Wish	336
Changing one's Note	341
Dogs Physiognomists	343
Whale and Seal Bones as Manure	346
"Look where you're going." Industry without Reward. Popular Hatred. The Chancellor of the Exchequer and Parliament. Tender Wish. Mental Freedom and the Condition of Woman. Criminals not according to Law. Songs	352
Hindoo Amazons	358
Wit and Riches. A good Memory. Human Pursuits. An agreeable Surprise. Burning an Idol. Usefulness. Mercy. A Cure for the Gout	368
Musical Mice	379
English and German Servants	384
The Stars. Hazlitt on Wordsworth. Byron on Scott. A ruined Church. Progress of Truth. Books. Laconics	ib.
Mournful Thoughts Friendly to Virtue	390
Fragment of a Conversation between Lady Jane Grey and R. Ascham	ib.
A Comment on the Commentators	397
Nature; and Laconics	400
The Emperor Alexander in Paris	407
Perilous Escape	ib.